

I. MISSION STATEMENT AND GENERAL OBJECTIVES:

Mission Statement:

The Mission of the Hollis Social Library is to connect patrons with informational, cultural, and recreational resources to enrich life, promote literacy, inspire intellectual curiosity, support lifelong learning, and stimulate the imagination.

General Objectives:

The objectives of the Hollis Social Library are as follows:

- To acquire and maintain an organized and up-to-date collection of print and non-print educational, recreational, and informative materials.
- To serve the community as a reference, resource, and recreational reading facility.
- To seek to identify community needs and to initiate programs and services to meet those needs.
- To cooperate with the schools and school libraries wherever and whenever possible.